Frankfort, Ky., May 15. A clash between Lieut. Shackelford, a United States army officer, who opened a recruiting station here a few days ago, and Capt. Fred Gordon, of the Kentucky state guards, has raised an issue which will be raised in the war department at Washington. After the recruits enlisted by Lieut. Shackelford were taken by Capt. Gordon, the latter refused to allow them to accompany the recruiting officer, claiming that they could not be taken out of the state guard except by consent of the state military authorities. The two men are, in consequence, locked up in the armory and Lieut. Shackelford has closed the recruiting station with the announcement that he will leave the matter, including Capt. Gordon's conduct in arresting the parties, to the war department at once.

WESTERN CANADA'S DECEMBER WEATHER EQUAL TO THAT OF MAY IN MINNESOTA.

To the Editor:

Thomas Regan and C. Collins, of John's Valley, Minnesota, went out to Western Canada last December and made a report on the weather.

Winter in Minnesota and Manitoba, we were surprised to find beautiful warm weather. This point quite equal to what we have in May in Minnesota. There was no snow nor trace of winter to be seen, and the climate was really splendid. Horses, cattle and sheep were running out. In prime condition, with plenty of feed on the prairie, and really better than that of our state in the south. We are impressed with this country as one of the finest mixed farming countries we have ever seen.

The immense tracts of fertile land, well sheltered and abundantly watered, leave nothing to be desired. Leaving Alberta, we returned to the south and visited the Yorkton district in Saskatchewan. We drove out about ten miles at this point and were highly pleased with the splendid samples of grain we were able to see, wheat, barley, oats, 25 bushels, and 60 bushels. Roots were of good specimens. From what we have seen, we have decided to throw in our lot with the Yorktoners.

—satisfied that this part of the country will furnish good opportunities for anyone anxious to make the best of a really good country. Any agent of the Canadian Government whose advertisement appears elsewhere in the columns of your paper will give you full particulars of the new lands being offered out this year in Saskatchewan and Saskatchewan.

Yours truly,
O. H. KEEFER.

STAYS IN JAIL FOR SPIE.

Federal court in St. Louis in the case of a St. Louis man from St. Louis.

James Johnson, 64 years old, infirm, gray-haired, declares that "you can't make a man have a jail if he doesn't want it." He has been in the county jail at St. Louis, since 1894, and now says he won't leave, but a condition that is concerning the authorities is, can a free man be forced to have a jail report a local exchange.

The old man was sent there seven years ago for refusing to sign a deed of expatriation of his own property. He was accused of conspiring with the Germans, he would never sign. A bill was passed giving county officers the right to sign deeds of expatriation, and Johnson breathed free again. But Johnson won't budge out of jail.

"I've got used to jail life, I like it," he said. "I guess I won't leave. I'll spite them all."

Then unless corpus proceedings were started, Johnson refused to sign the petition. Now Senator Watson has suddenly in a moment of good will, decided to get a man out of jail against his wishes.

Willing to Pay Any Price.

Very few people are willing to pay more than the manufacturers' price for any article, even though it be remarkably good. This is the case with Mr. Martin J. Johnson, of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul R.R. Co., who writes: "I am willing to pay any price for a pair of shoes that will last me for a long time."

Easily Remembered. "Where's Mr. Johnson?" "He's in the next room." "Are you sure?" "Yes, I just overheard him saying that."

"It is with a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction that I recommend Emberberg's Cough, Croup and Whooping Remedy," says Dr. J. A. W. Swartzell
of Hartford, Conn.
"A lady customer, seeing the remedy
exposed for sale on my shelf, came and said: 'I really believe that medicine saved my life the past summer, while at the shore' and she became so enthusiastic over its merits that she induced
my mind to recommend it in the future. Recently a gentleman came into my store so overcome with cold cough that he had to lie down in the store. I repeated the dose and in five minutes he left my store smilingly informed me that he felt as well as ever." Sold by Covvill & Cogill,

THE DOUGHNUT COIN.

The new 5-cent piece soon to be in-sued by the government has already been styled the "doughnut coin" by reason of the fact the piece is to have a hole in the center. This innovation in the coinage of a part of Uncle Sam's money was deemed necessary from the fact that the coin is the same size and
of the same material as is the present
5-cent piece.

THE NEW ARMY.

All the volunteer soldiers now in the service of the United States will be mustered out by the last of June. Those in the Philippines are being brought home as rapidly as the transports can carry them. Regulars are taking their places, but there will be a gradual reduction of the forces in the Philippines.
The war there is practically over. Only two bands of insurgents of any consequence are still in rebellion, and their surrender is only a question of days.
But there will be bands of outlaws for a long time to come and these will give the soldiers police and scouting work
such as they had to do for years on our Western frontier.
Congress gave the President authority
to increase the army to 100,000 men.
But the reduction of the Philippines
makes this unnecessary. The aggregate strength of the army will be 74, 404 enlisted men, the total of officers
and men making 77,257 which is one soldier for each thousand inhabitants.

BIG BATTLESHIP OHIO.

The Vessel Launched in the Presence of Mrs. McKinley.

Miss Barber, instead of Mrs. McKinley, Presided the Edition That Sent Vessel Down the Ways.

San Francisco, May 19. Guided by a lovely Ohio band and with a stirring voice speaking her christening vision, the elegant red hull of the battleship Ohio, as grim and stern as a warrior of old battles in steel, at noon Saturday entered the water. Scarcely had the main whistles and bells been heard when President McKinley made his way to the staid erected beneath the steel back of the monster ship. On his arm was his favorite son, Mrs. McKinley, who had come to fill the place of her beloved mother. In his train was Gov. Nash and ex-gov. John D. Bunker, the chief sponsor for the vessel and host of the floating fortress of the phantasmagoria.

Crowded on the platform was a notable throng of dignitaries, among them the governors of three states. From the tiered depths, like a storm of old battles in steel, the first prop and stay but one has been cut away, and all in readiness, obedient to a signal the propeller and its nice deep to the side at the prow, where in electric blue gleams, Little Miss Barber, in her virginial christening gown, a shell whistle. The last prop and stay but one has been cut away, and all in readiness, obedient to a signal the propeller and its nice deep to the side at the prow, where in electric blue gleams, Little Miss Barber, in her virginial christening gown, a shell whistle. PASSED AWAY.

Mrs. Emma J. Gage, Wife of the Secretary of the Treasury, Died in Washington.

Washington, May 18. Mrs. Emma J. Gage, wife of the secretary of the treasury, died at her residence, No. 1715 Massachusetts avenue, N. W., after an illness of nine weeks during which she was attended by Dr. J. P. Pierce, of Evansville, Ill., and Dr. W. W. Johnson, the attending physician. For a time before her death Mrs. Gage suffered considerably from pain, but she maintained her bright and cheerful demeanor, and was conscious to the last. Heart trouble, the result of grip complications, was the immediate cause of death.

Mrs. Gage was exposed to the inclement weather for about an hour on Memorial day, but at the time her health did not seem to have been affected. The March 11 she left her four children to visit her married daughter. While there she experienced a chill and took to her bed, but soon recovered sufficiently to return to Washington, where she had been confined to her room ever since. Mrs. Gage was a native of Albany, N. Y., and is years of age. She was married to Secretary Gage in 1870. In 1887, they were given children from this union, Mrs. Gage being a child by a former husband.

No other disease kills so many people. Medical science, which this accomplished its purpose, has been so far from being troubled by this terrible malady. Within the last few years the claim has been made that it is a disease of the future, and the doctors assert that they are effecting many cures. Chrys may be, and are, effecting many cures, but it is not a disease, but no appreciable reward has been made against its ravages, judging from the fact that it is still so common. Sometimes persons recover from the disease without ever having been treated for it, or from knowing that they are afflicted with it, or at least growing bolder is that it is not hereditary, and that it spread by infection, but that it spread by contagion, and clinical and pathological demonstrations will be given, pathological and bacteriological, and the results of the experiments will be shown, and the historical, geographical and statistical aspects of the disease will be given. This is the first single triumph in the history of medical science will have been achieved, and the world will be a wiser and a happier place for the white death has been discovered.
